

3 Night Las Vegas Spa Getaway

3 Nights at The Encore Las Vegas
Fully Customizable

Tall, slim and sleek, Encore stands side-by-side with Wynn hotel on the Las Vegas Strip. Both signature resorts from Wynn Resorts Chairman and CEO Steve Wynn display feminine curves and an upwards arch that almost appear to abstractly mimic the arch of the valley's mountain skyline.

Elegant and refined, yet not highfalutin' or stuffy, some are calling Encore the younger, hipper sister of Wynn.

Exquisite style flows through Encore's public and private areas with custom pieces such as carpet, furniture, lamps and fine artwork hand-chosen by a top-notch design team. These pieces intermingle with tasteful and spectacular horticulture, making Encore a living piece of art. Natural light permeates the 40,000-square-foot atrium at the hotel's Strip entrance, where more than one chirping bird has been spotted flying between the live trees.

Decorated with art and custom furniture, the suites at Encore are larger than those at Wynn Las Vegas by at least 100 square feet. Inside the suite, guests will find first-rate amenities such as overstuffed pillows, a pillow-top bed, L-shaped sofa and secondary flat screen television in the bathroom mirror. Lights throughout are easily controlled from the front door, and can be dimmed or brightened depending on the mood. Likewise, guests can control their window shades remotely without ever getting out of bed.

There are two points of entry between Encore and Wynn, (one between the properties' convention spaces and another between the Esplanade at Encore shops and theaters). Eleven high-end shops fill the Esplanade.

Along with class and character, Encore is also about convenience. Parking and check-in is located close to the suites' elevator bank, saving guests from the hassle of dragging their luggage through the casino.

The casino itself has a private, luxurious feel, tucked between walkways and surrounded by columned pavilions, canopies and draperies. For high rollers, Encore is also home to high limit gaming and baccarat, as well as a unique Sky Casino for those placing a $300,000-minimum bet.

While Wynn hotel already provides the high-volume eating experience with its buffet and some of its other larger restaurants, the restaurants at Encore are scaled down to provide a more intimate experience. Whether it's a relaxed and romantic fine Italian meal at Chef Theo Schoenegger's Sinatra's or the pan-Asian café creations of Chef Jet Tila at Wazuzu, all of Encore's restaurants are owned by the hotel.

Prices quoted are per person, double occupancy, before any taxes, fees, or charges, unless otherwise indicated. Guests can also dine on steaks and chops among voluptuous sculptures by Fernando Botero at star chef Mark LoRusso's Botero Steak. At Chef Marc Poidevin's French-inspired Switch, the walls come to life mid-meal and your surroundings appear to change before your eyes.

Later in the evening, Victor Drai's XS nightclub lives up to its name, spreading its decadent nightlife vibe out into Encore's pool area. With a European-style pool, center bar with gaming and large main pool, the sparkling pool area is a centerpiece of the hotel and can be admired from just about every vantage point, including most restaurant terraces.

Between its opulent design and relaxing body treatments, the full-service Encore Spa brings new meaning to tranquility and comfort, while the salon offers a full menu of services and even has pedicure chairs overlooking the Las Vegas Strip.

All of these charms combined with its impeccable service and attentive staff will have Vegas visitors cheering "Encore."

Day One: Spa at The Encore

Luxurious details extends abounds through out the entire spa – faux leather-covered lockers, and the signature butterfly motif hand-woven in silk and affixed to a domed ceiling. Representing change and beauty, the butterfly is the prevailing motif throughout the resort. You'll see it everywhere.

Even with its 50 plus treatment rooms and suites the Spa at Encore is among the largest in this spa-centric city, it still has a boutique feel. Elements such as a collection of small locker rooms and various lounge spaces help create that feeling of intimacy.

Point of Distinction: The distinction at the Spa at Encore is definitely the décor. Most of the spaces are very lux.

Signature Treatments: The signature spa treatment is based upon the five elements of Feng Shui, A traditional Eastern art practiced to achieve health, wealth, prosperity, happiness and harmony. Including a 50 minute Fusion Massage, this unique treatment combines heated Thai herbal massage pillows, a luxurious lemon verbena and peppermint foot treatment, ultra moisturizing hand therapy, and a relaxing wild lime botanical scalp treatment.
80 minutes

Where to Rehydrate: The juice bar on the spa floor offers a menu of fresh fruit and veggie drinks including shots of wheat grass.

Additional Facilities: On the third floor you will also find a salon, a gym , two fitness studios for scheduled yoga and Pilates classes, and a good-sized boutique.

Prices quoted are per person, double occupancy, before any taxes, fees, or charges, unless otherwise indicated.
